Kudu played the role of Arjun, a young man from a middle-class family, with a charming smile and an innocent smile. Arjun is one of the main characters of the film. He is a nice kid who does not know much about his parents. Arjun is easily angered by his father's abusive behavior and is the only character who stands up to him. The rest of the characters feel ashamed of this and get intimidated by his attitude. Arjun's parents, who are a couple, appear to be well educated and middle-class. They love Arjun with all their heart. Arjun however does not love them. He always feels 'cheated' whenever he takes his parents for granted. The 'Gharwale' appear to be the perfect parents in Arjun's eyes. The first scene of the film takes place in a nice neighbourhood of Mumbai where Arjun is with his parents. They go to a hillside to celebrate his birthday. Arjun has a bright smile on his face when they approach him. When his parents ask him to throw the balloons away, he gets a bit angry, as he has been spoiled by his parents all these days. He takes his anger out on the balloons, as he is unable to speak. He bursts one of the balloons and, while doing so, throws it at his parents. His parents do not take any notice of this and continue talking to him in a nice way. The scene then changes to another neighbourhood, where a boy named Ritik, a young man in his early twenties is trying to impress his parents. He appears to be a model kid, extremely talented and accomplished. The parents seem to be proud of his good qualities. When Ritik is in the house, it is always a party. The parents go for work and Arjun stays back with his friends. Ritik comes home and goes to Arjun's room and disturbs him. He comes back again with a few friends. One of the friends, a girl named Khushi, is of a different caste. This angers Arjun. Ritik asks Arjun to sit down with him, as he wants to teach him a lesson. Ritik and Arjun sit near a tap. Ritik sees Arjun's parents and calls them. His parents come and hear Ritik's conversation. Ritik asks Arjun's parents whether Arjun is a good kid. He is surprised to find out that Arjun's parents
